The 2021 GORge Pass has been expanded to give you more transit options around the Columbia Gorge.

The GORge Pass just got bigger and better.

Gorge Translink is happy to announce the expansion of the GORge Pass to include additional Columbia Gorge transit services beginning July 1, 2021.

Your GORge Pass now covers fixed route travel on these transit providers:

- Columbia Area Transit—including the Columbia Gorge Express and the Gorge-to-Mountain Express in winter
- The Link Public Transit (The Link)
- Mt. Adams Transportation Service (MATS)
- Skamania Transit Services

If you have a current GORge Pass, there is no additional cost for this service expansion to your pass and no action you need to take.

Here's where you can now go with the GORge Pass:

Columbia Area Transit (CAT)
(Hood River County, OR)

- Cascade Locks
- Hood River

- Portland (Columbia Gorge Express)
- Troutdale
- The Dalles
- Hood River Weekend Trolley (in summer)
- Mt. Hood Meadows (in winter)

The Link Public Transit (The Link)

(Wasco County, OR)

- The Dalles

Mt. Adams Transportation Service (MATS)

(Klickitat County, WA)

- Bingen
- Dallesport
- Goldendale
- White Salmon
- Wishram
- The Dalles

Skamania County Transit

(Skamania County, WA)

- Carson
- Stevenson
- Skamania
- Washougal
- Vancouver
- Dog Mountain Shuttle (in spring)
